

AusACPDM Listening and Sharing session

CPActive – Activating our voices for change

Join us in our free listening and sharing session

September 25 4.30-5.30pm Australian EST

This interactive AusACPDM Listening and Sharing session will be about:

Join us for an update on the CP community's advocacy platform, CPActive. CPActive is a grassroots movement driven by individuals with CP, similar disabilities, and their allies. Discover our three key pillars: advocating for change, fostering community, and creating opportunities for development. Learn about our initiatives and find out how you can be part of our community and help amplify the voice of lived experience towards inclusion.

This session will be of interest to clinicians, researchers, students and people with lived experience.

Presenters include: Aman Gopalani, Daniel Clarke, Riley Saban, Sophie Geeves and Teigan Butchers

The session will be facilitated by: Georgina Henry
